

The Search for the Elizabeth Crown

Today is the day! Jon, Riley, and their dog, Sparky are finally visiting Fort Collins for the first time and staying at the Elizabeth Hotel & Emporium Kitchen and Wine Market!

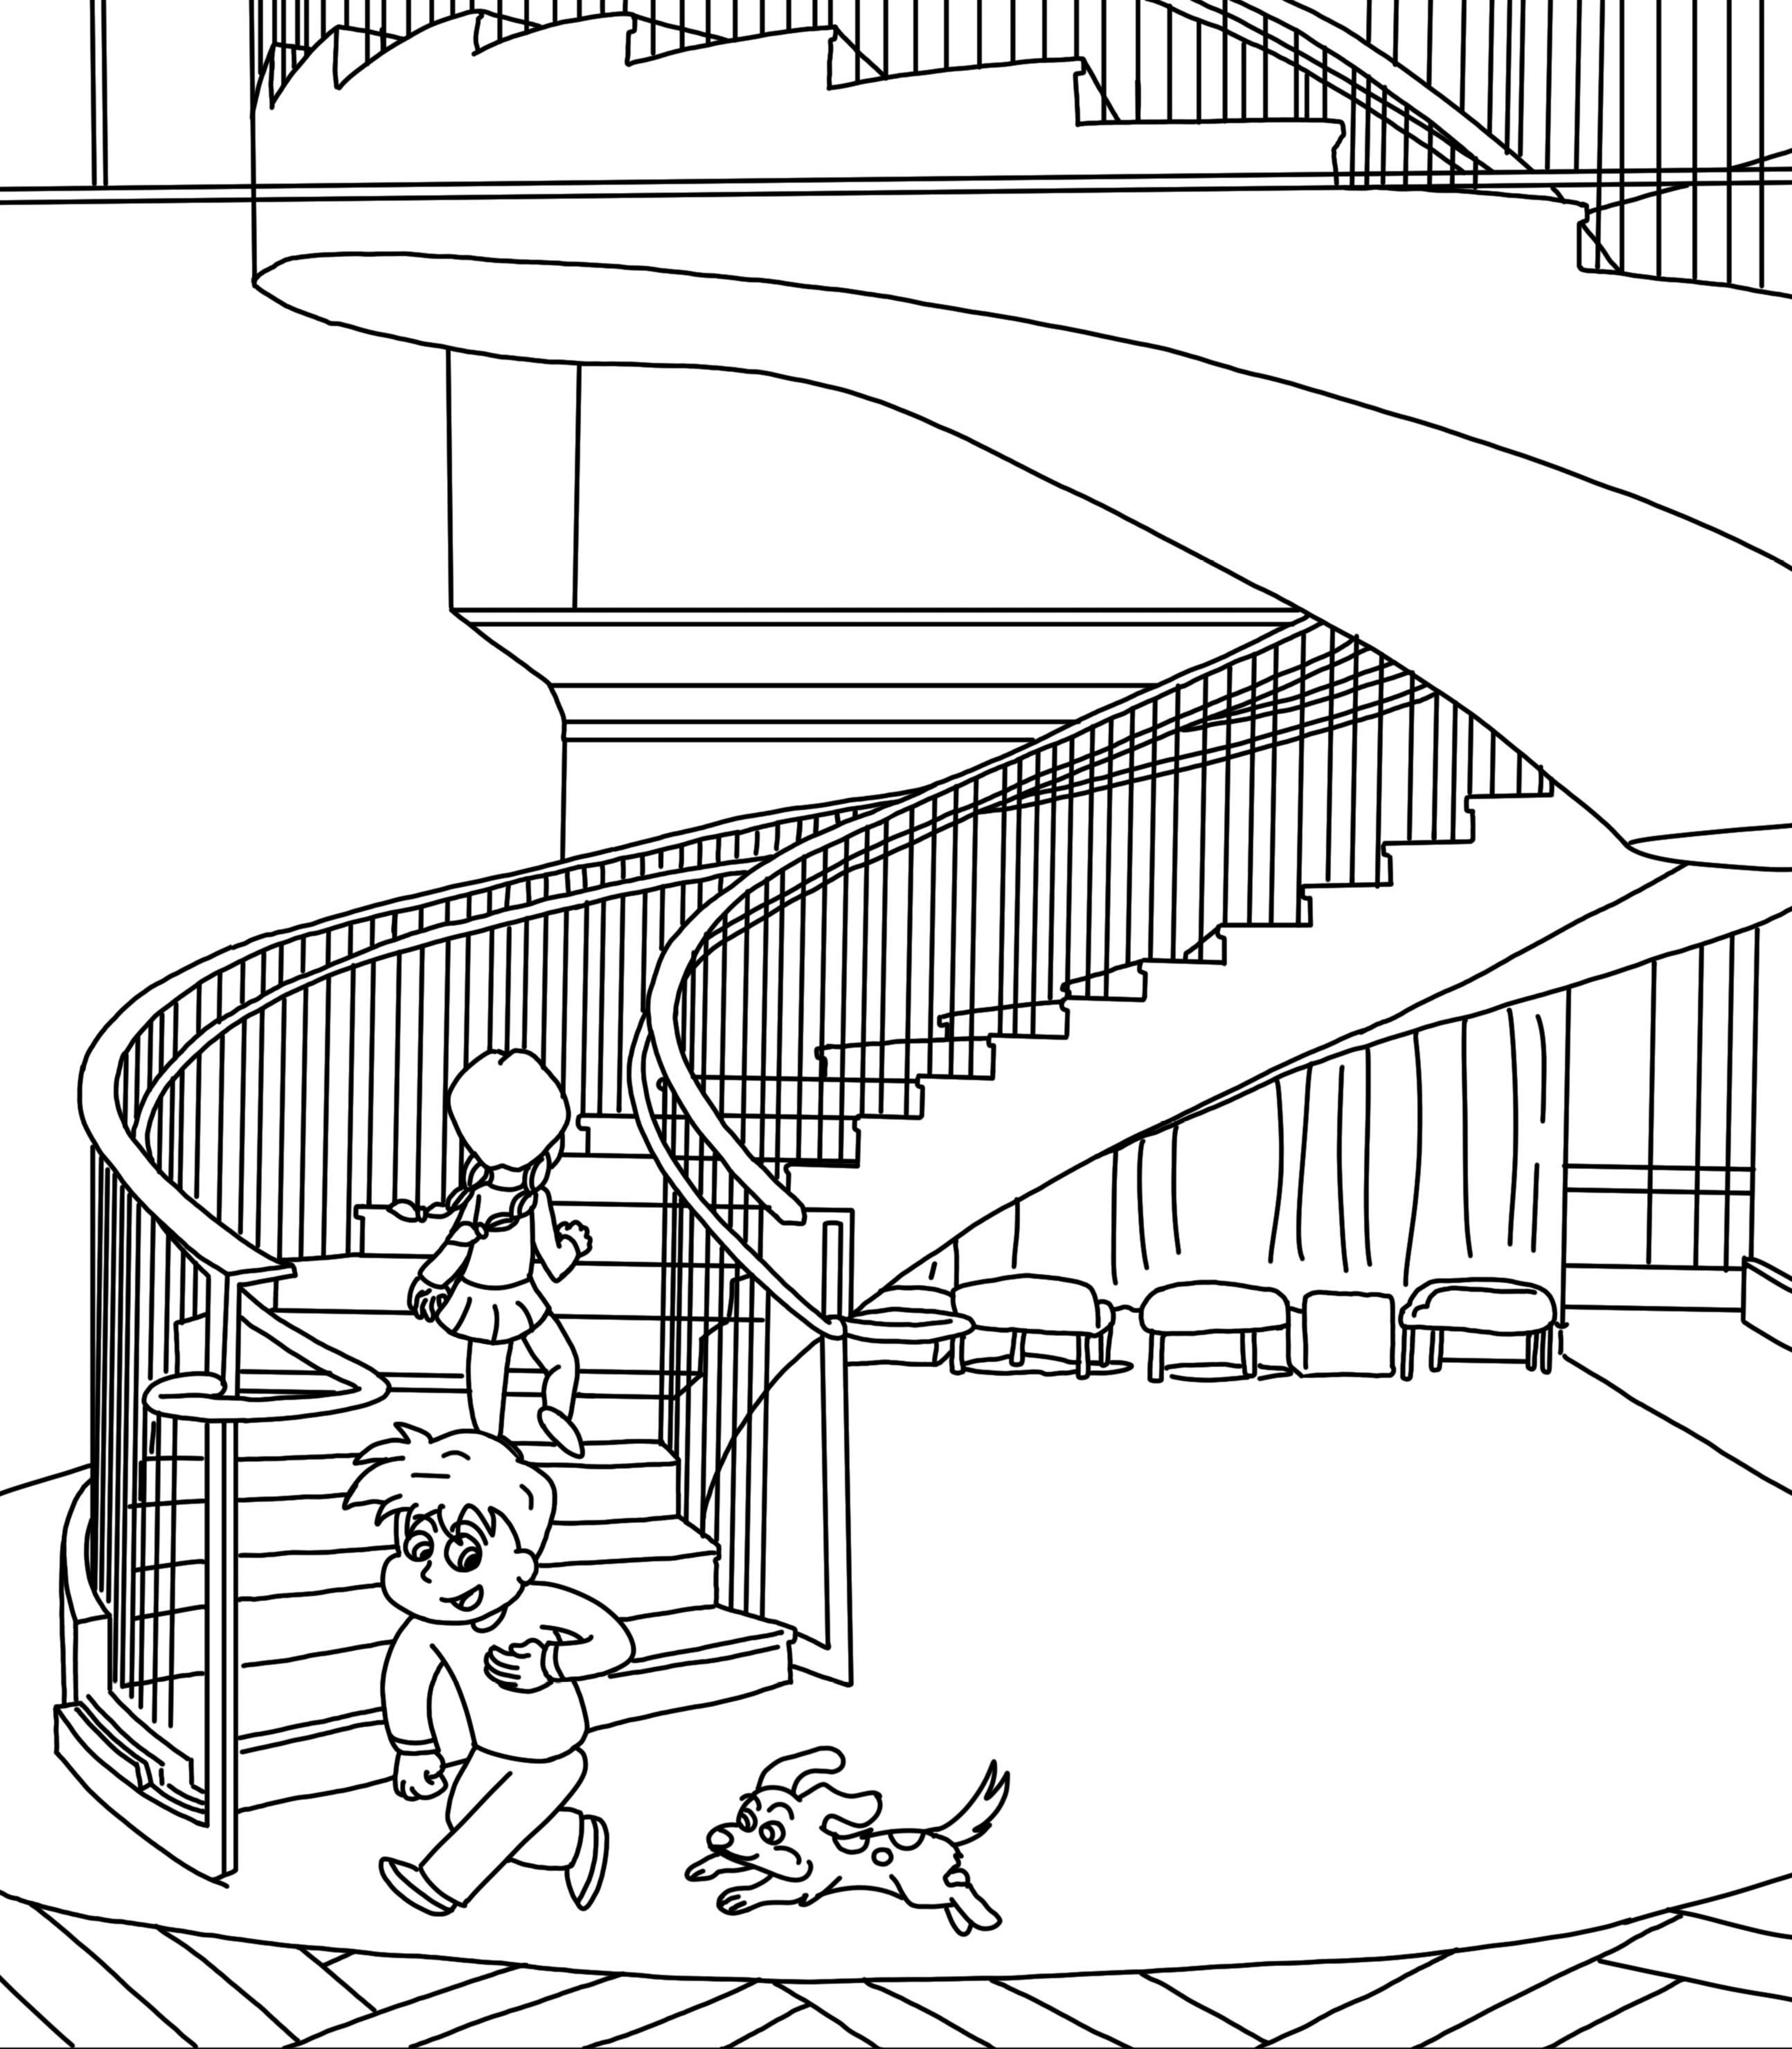

"Welcome to the Elizabeth Hotel! You must be here to help us find the Elizabeth Crown!" says Tara at the front desk.

"No, we haven't heard about it, but my brother and I are really great at scavenger hunts!" exclaimed Riley.

"Where do we start?" asked Jon.

"If you go ALL the way up the grand staircase and onto the terrace, I think you'll find your first clue!" says Tara.

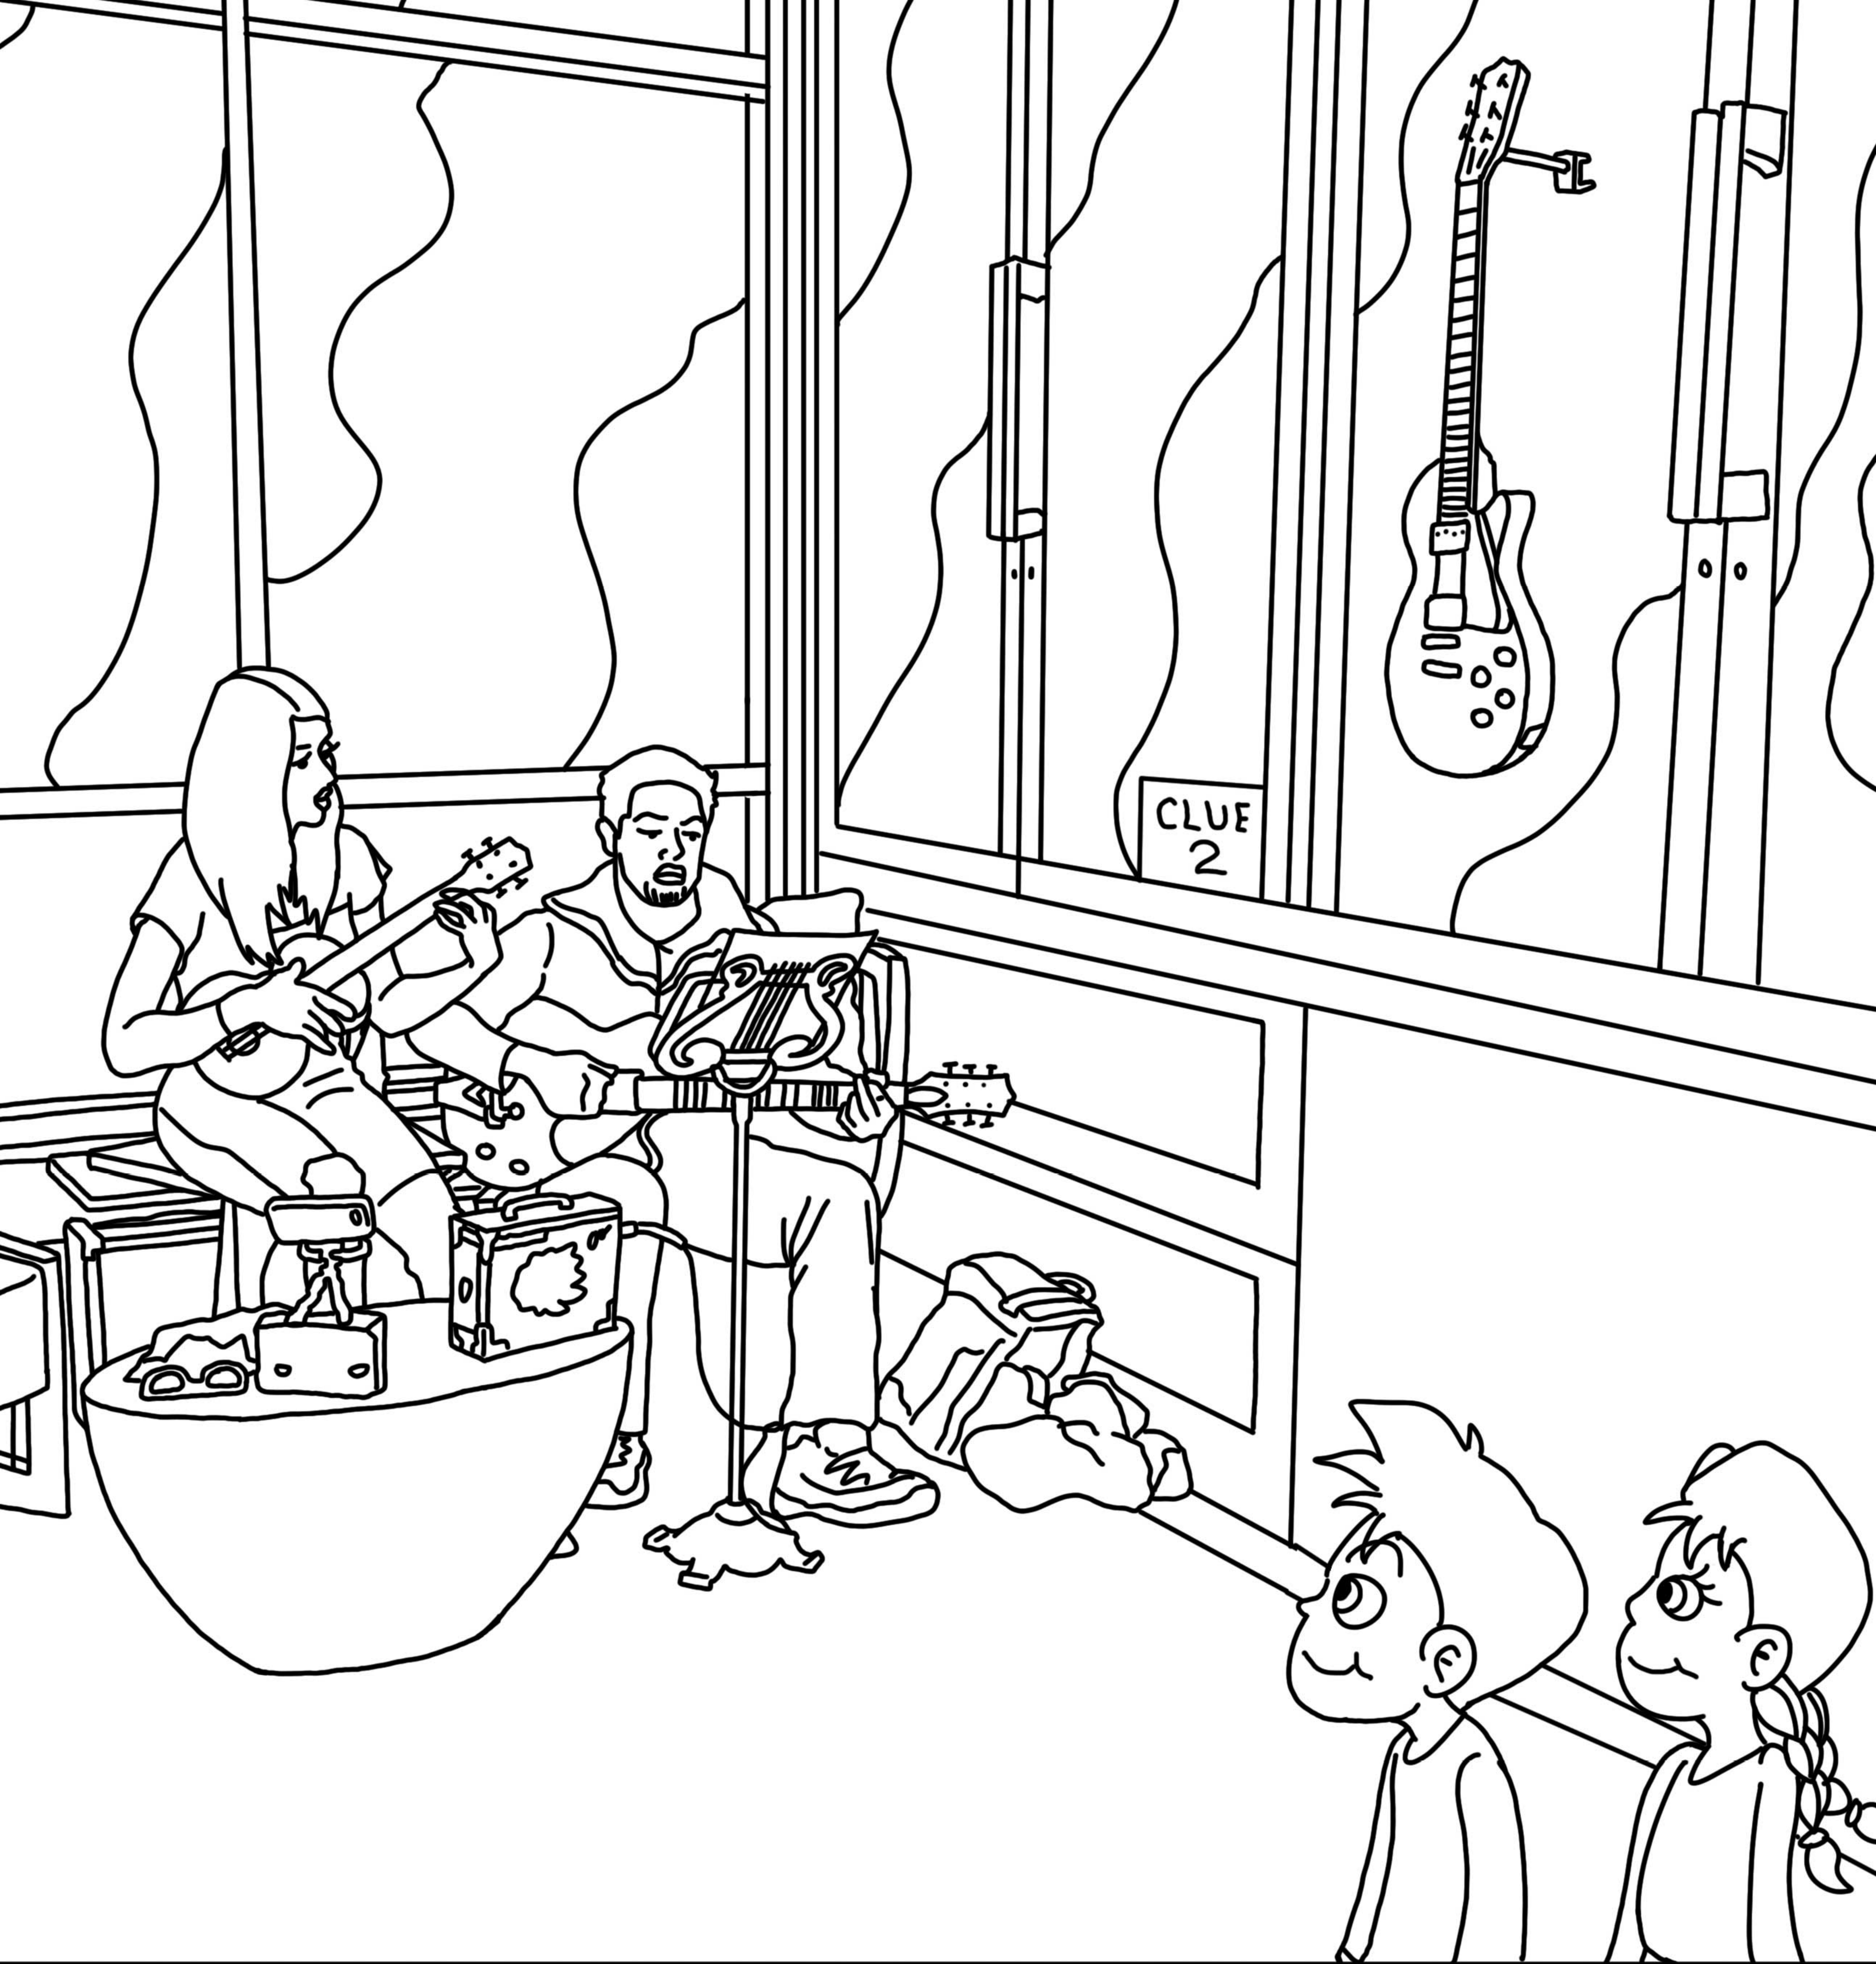

Jon and Riley made it all the way up the staircase where lo and behold, they find the entrance to the terrace.

Clue 1: _____

“Oh, the Instrument Lending Library downstairs has guitars in it; it has to be there!” squealed Jon.

The kids ran into a man playing a guitar. "Are you both here to help me find The Elizabeth Crown?" the friendly man asked. Jon and Riley nodded.

All of a sudden the kids spot Clue 2 hidden in the guitars!

Clue 2: _____

The kids ran towards the coffee shop.

"May we have two hot chocolates with whipped cream?" Riley asked the barista nicely.

"Here you go; So I heard you're looking for the famous Elizabeth Crown?" asked Andrew the barista.

"Yes," proclaimed the kids while jumping up and down." Pay close attention to the menu board," says Andrew.

The kids see Clue 3 on the menu board and Andrew shows the kids the next clue.

Clue 3: _____

The kids run off looking for the lobby squirrel.

Jon and Riley skip over to the lobby to find the squirrel.
